JUDGEMENTS AND ORDERS

SEBI Order

1. In the matter of Mindtree Ltd.

SEBI received letter October 26, 2018 for Mindtree Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as “Company”) informing on violation of regulation 7(2)(a) of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter referred to as the “PIT Regulations”) by two (2) of its employees and also action taken by Company.

In this regard, SEBI conducted separate investigation with regard to the transactions of promoters, directors and employees of the Company during the Investigation Period. It was observed that Mr. Bilmudi Krishnappa Sachin (hereinafter referred to as “Noticee”) employee of the Company has done transactions in company scrip aggregating to a traded value in excess of Rs 10,00,000 over a calendar quarter and failed to make necessary disclosure under regulation 7(2)(a) of the PIT Regulations. The Adjudicating Officer issued the Show Cause Notice (“SCN”) to Noticee and alleged that Noticee has traded in the securities which were in excess of the limit specified in Regulation 7(2)(a) of PIT Regulations and the necessary/ any disclosures was not made with regards to the aforesaid regulations.

Adjudicating officer (“AO”) considered the facts, circumstances and violation committed by the Noticee which was repetitive in nature, passed Adjudication order in respect of Mr. Bilmudi Krishnappa Sachin (hereinafter referred to as “Noticee”) by imposing monetary penalty of Rs.1,00,000/- (Rupees One Lakh only) under Section 15A(b) of the SEBI Act upon Noticee for violations of regulation 7(2)(a) of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter referred to as the “PIT Regulations”).

NCLAT

1. NCLAT dismissed the appeal stating that there cannot be equality between class of Operational Creditors and class of Financial Creditors

- ✚ An appeal was filed against the order passed by the Adjudicating Authority (National Company Law Tribunal), New Delhi Bench, Court No. IV dated 28.10.2021 by which the Resolution Plan was approved. The Appellant, an Operational Creditor aggrieved by the order challenged it.
- ✚ Learned counsel for the Appellant submits that there is great disparity between the amount offered to the Operational Creditors as compared to payment of dues offered to the Financial Creditors. Further he submitted that there has to be equality in the payment of dues which is to be made between the different stakeholders and present is the case of clear inequality and arbitrariness where the Operational Creditors have been provided with only with less percentage. Learned counsel for the Respondent submitted that submission regarding arbitrariness is wholly misconceived. He submitted that in the CoC there are 95% Unsecured Financial Creditors and only 5% of the Voting share is of the Secured Financial Creditors still the Unsecured Financial Creditors has accepted less than 1% payment. Therefore, there is neither any inequality nor any arbitrariness. It is further submitted that there is no case of the Appellant that Appellant is receiving less than the liquidation value to which it is entitled under Section 53.
- ✚ The Hon'ble Supreme Court in (2020) 8 SCC 531, 'Essar Steel India Ltd. Committee of Creditors vs. Satish Kumar Gupta' has occasion to consider this very issue and held that equality should be looked into with regard to same class of creditors. It was also held that there cannot be equality between class of Operational Creditors and class of Financial Creditors. The Appellant cannot claim any parity in payment offered to the Financial Creditors. The tribunal did not find any arbitrariness and inequality vitiating the order passed by the Adjudicating Authority and do not find any ground to interfere with the Resolution Plan. Hence appeal was dismissed.

HIGH COURT

1. Petition filed by BSNL challenging the Arbitral Award was dismissed by the Delhi High Court.

Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited	Petitioner
Teracom Limited	Respondent

Date of Judgement: March 28, 2022

- ✚ Bharat Sanchar Nigam Limited (“BSNL”), being the Petitioner in the present case, had issued a Notice Inviting Tenders (“NIT”), for purchase of 9,80,000 units of Integrated Fixed Wireless Terminal Devices (IFWT), CDMA Terminals. Teracom Limited, respondent in the present case, participated in the said tender and was declared as the successful bidder.
- ✚ Accordingly, BSNL issued an Advance Purchase Order (“APO” in favour of Teracom for purchase of 3,75,000 units. In terms of the APO, Teracom furnished a Performance Bank Guarantee for an amount of INR 2,12,97,000/-, which was valid for a period of three years.
- ✚ Thereafter BSNL placed a Purchase Order for procurement of 3,75,000 units from the respondent. There delay in payment of 80% of the total payment due under the Contract, Teracom informed BSNL that even though it had provided complete supply of the IFWT equipment, several State Telecom Circles of BSNL had failed to release 80% of the payment due to it.
- ✚ The Performance Bank Guarantee was initially for a term of three years but Teracom had extended the same from time to time, at the instance of BSNL. Teracom resisted to extend the Performance Bank Guarantee when called upon by BSNL and thereafter in its letter stated it had met all its obligations under the Contract and requested that the Performance Bank Guarantee be released. BSNL did not do so and invoked the Performance Bank Guarantee.
- ✚ In view of the disputes between the parties, Teracom issued a notice to the Chairman and Managing Director, BSNL, invoking the Arbitration Agreement and seeking reference of the disputes to arbitration and by the impugned award, the Arbitral Tribunal has awarded an amount of ₹2,12,97,000/- in favor of Teracom, which was the amount recovered by BSNL by encashing the Performance Bank Guarantee. This led the petitioner to file the present petition under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 challenging an arbitral award delivered by an Arbitral Tribunal constituted by a Sole Arbitrator. However, the Court found no ground to fault the challenged award and the petition was unmerited and accordingly dismissed.
